

BRIGHTON WOK

Brighton Wok: The Legend of Ganja Boxing

<http://www.brighton-wok.com>

Released: 2008

Duration: 90 mins

Director: Gabriel Howard

IMDB: <http://www.imdb.com/title/tt1233253/>

Synopsis

NINJAS - GANJA - KUNG-FU

Ninjas are taking over Brighton. Terrorising locals, killing hippies, blocking supplies of marijuana.

Can The Chosen One learn the ancient martial art of Ganja Boxing to save his home town and avenge his past?

First, he must find The Ganja Master.

The British cult-classic of the 2000's, Brighton Wok is a micro-budget, independent feature film available on widescreen DVD with 5.1 surround sound.

A Stoner Film and a Kung Fu comedy set – incongruously – in an English seaside resort and inspired by comic culture and 80's movies.

Brighton Wok was filmed all over Sussex, with locations including: The Hundred Acre Wood (Winnie the Pooh), Chanctonbury Ring, Devils' Dyke, Seaford, Beachy Head, Ditchling Beacon, Woodingdean, Harrison's Rocks, all over Brighton and of course Hove.

Selling online and at independent video shops across the world.

Recommended Retail Price: £9.99

Production Company: Convict Films <http://convictfilms.com>

Last updated: August 23, 2010

<http://convictfilms.com/>